WISDEN CRICKETERS' ALMANACK 1864

John Wisden & Co. 1864

A superb run of the first 17 volumes of the Almanack, each rebound in dark brown quarter morocco over mid-brown cloth with titles in gilt lettering to spines and a gilt thread running down the seam between cloth and leather. All are rebound without the original wrappers except for 1879 which has them bound in. Vols 1864-66 and 1868-77 have been trimmed down with page edges speckled red. In 1870 there is minor loss to the edge of the text at the base of the last six pages. In 1872-75 the top edge has been trimmed very close to the text with partial lost to chapter headings but not main text. In 1878 there is some quite heavy scattered foxing. Otherwise all bright and clean with very little signs of use.

A RARE OPPORTUNITY TO BUY THE FIRST 17 VOLUMES OF THE ALMANACK IN A HANDSOME UNIFORM BINDING.

John Wisden & Co. 1881-90

A complete run in ten volumes (1881 to 1890) each rebound in uniform red flexible cloth covers with titles in gilt lettering to fronts. The binding looks to be mid-20th century. Spines sl rubbed, especially at the head. Contents of each vol run from title-page to final text page, thus lacking front and rear adverts in all cases. All very clean copies, page edges speckled red and trimmed by binder. Ex-libris RML Iremonger-Watts (Dorset C.C.C. 1938-39), with his signature in most vols.

A fine chance to acquire a good matching run of these early editions.
