THE COMPLETE SPORTSMAN (COMPILED FROM THE OCCASIONAL PAPERS OF REGINALD DRAKE BIFFIN)

The fictional sporting memoirs of Reginald Drake Biffin, including chapters on cricket, golf and many country sports. The author was perhaps best known as a poet and lyricist.

First edition. 8vo. 301pp. Foxing to page edges and endpapers. Dust-wrapper, rubbed and chipped to edges with long closed tear to front. The dust-wrapper seems to be from a different edition of the book (slightly different size) but seemingly from the same year - based on the list of other books published that year by Edward Arnold on the back panel.

LEONARD STILEMAN-GIBBARD (SOUTH OF ENGLAND V AUSTRALIANS 1886) SIGNED CRICKET POSTCARD

Original postcard of Leonard Stileman-Gibbard, taken in later years, signed and dated by the subject in 1929. Stileman-Gibbard played cricket for Bedfordshire but is most significant for playing only one first-class match, and that against the Australians in 1886. Playing for the South of England at Hastings in September Stileman-Gibbard, batting at number 9, made 46 in the first innings and 9 in the second, falling both times to George Giffen. In fact these were Giffen's only two wickets in the match.
