ENGLAND 1930 CRICKET AUTOGRAPHS

Album page, signed by 12 England cricketers - Chapman, Duckworth, Hammond, Goddard, Duleepsinhji, Leyland, Nichols, Sutcliffe, Tate, Hendren, Peebles and Verity. It seems likely that the autographs were collected during the 1930 Old Trafford Ashes Test match - this includes 10 of the starting XI from that match. The one who has not signed is Jack Hobbs. Hendren and Verity were not in the starting XI.

13 x 10cm. Verity's autograph is in pencil, all the rest in ink. There is some ink transference, presumably from the opposite page, but the autographs are still bright and clear.

CLIFTON RUGBY FOOTBALL CLUB 1879-80 (UNDEFEATED SEASON) TEAM PHOTOGRAPH

Original sepia photograph of the Clifton RFC team of 1879-80, a season in which they won all 14 fixtures, conceding no tries throughout the campaign. The team included William Moberly, who played rugby for England and cricket for Gloucestershire; HWR Gribble (Gloucs. cricket 1878-82); George Butterworth (Wimbledon semi-finalist in 1880); J.D. Miller, who helped form the Gloucestershire RFU; H.L. Evans, who played rugby for Scotland; G.V. Cox, the cousin of Harry Vassall; and J.P. Bush and J.E. Bush, two brothers of J.A. Bush.

21.5 x 28cm overall. Laid down to card with full printed team legend and season's results beneath. Presumably this was originally a leaf from a photograph album, with a large group photograph to reverse. Some light foxing, and crease to one corner - but generally in very good condition.
