MEMOIRS OF SIR HUGH LYON PLAYFAIR ... PROVOST OF ST. ANDREWS

A biographical sketch of Sir Hugh Lyon Playfair, written soon after his death in 1861. It covers briefly his time in the army, serving mainly in India, before focusing on his time as Provost of St Andrews from 1842 onwards. Playfair is credited with instigating many improvements to the town of St Andrews but is perhaps best remembered for his role in reviving The Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St Andrews and, in particular, regenerating the Links. Two pages of the book cover this.

First edition. 8vo. 64pp. Photographic frontispiece of Playfair. Original green cloth boards with gilt title to front. The boards are lightly rubbed and bumped. Internally very good. This copy seems to have belonged to A.K. Lindesay of Balmungo, who was certainly an acquaintance of Playfair and is mentioned in the book. The word "Balmungo" is written in ink in contemporary hand to the top of the first page. A very good copy of an exceedingly rare book.

World Record 13 goals 1958-1998*", presented to each of the twenty two members of the French 1958 World Cup Squad by Fontaine to commemorate his extraordinary record of scoring 13 goals in a World Cup competition (including 4 against Germany). These were presented after the Final of the 1998 World Cup at the Dinner Banquet. Upon receipt of their watches, each member exchanged with a team mate. LE TOUQUET-PARIS-PLAGE HORSE SHOW (SEPTEMBER 9TH 1917 - MUTINY OF ETAPLES) PROGRAMME & TICKET

Original programme and ticket for the Horse Show (Concours Hippique) held in Le Touquet-Paris-Plage on Sunday September 9th, 1917. The competitors were all cavalry officers of the British, Belgium and Portuguese armies. This event took place on the very day of the Mutiny of Etaples, which started when a New Zealand infantryman was discovered returning across the bridge from Le Touquet to Etaples, the neighbouring town, and was imprisoned. This prompted a large mob to congregate near the bridge and as tempers flared a corporal was killed and the mutinous crowd rampaged through the town.

The army base at Etaples was a notoriously harsh environment and resentment of the officers, many of whom were based over the river in Le Touquet, often ran high. Conditions in Etaples were stark compared to Le Touquet, where the officers enjoyed comparative luxury and were free to pursue their own leisure activities, including the show jumping competition on that very afternoon. Gunner Healy, the infantryman who was caught returning from Le Touquet at about 3pm on that Sunday, may well have seen the horse show in passing, and the officers and dignitaries who attended the show would undoubtedly have become aware, as the afternoon progressed, of what was occurring just across the river.

The programme contains a full list of competitors to the centre spread, and an original ticket from the day is attached to the top right corner.

28 x 22cm. Single folded sheet with light folds. There is some paper transference to the back of the ticket where it has been removed from an album.

This is an extremely rare piece of memorabilia from the very day that the Mutiny of Etaples began.
