MIKE TYSON V JAMES "BUSTER" DOUGLAS 1990 (TOKYO) BOXING PROGRAMME

Official on-site souvenir programme for the World Heavyweight Championship between Mike Tyson and Buster Douglas at the Tokyo Dome, Tokyo, on February 11 1990. In one of the greatest upsets in sporting history, the 42-1 outsider Douglas beat Tyson in a tenth round TKO. Experts said afterwards that Tyson had failed to prepare for the fight properly and that his personal life was in turmoil. While this is undoubtedly true, Douglas fought the fight of his life, keeping Tyson at arms' length with jackhammer jabs. He too was affected by his emotions insofar as his mother had passed away just 23 days prior to the fight.

BASINGSTOKE CRICKET CLUB. PROGRAMME OF THE BAZAAR 1877

Programme for the Fete Bazaar held by Basingstoke Cricket Club on August 14th, 1877, including a cricket match between the Club and Mr. Godfray's team. The home team was captained by Captain John May, later Colonel May, and the author of "Cricket in North Hants", published in 1906. He gave the cricket ground to the town in 1880, and it is still called "May's Bounty". The orignal pavilion was built in 1877 so this bazaar may have been held to raise funds for the new building. Also lists all the stalls, programme of music, stewards for the day and the full teams for the 12-a-side match.

F.A. CUP FINAL PROGRAMME COLLECTION 1946-91

A collection of 51 post-War F.A. Cup final football programmes, including all replays. They start with Charlton Athletic v Derby County in 1946 and end with Nottingham Forest v Tottenham Hotspur in 1991. More modern ones can be added if desired. The programmes from 1946 to 1984 are slipped into two high quality programme files, and those from 1985 to 1991 (which are A4 in size) are in a normal file.

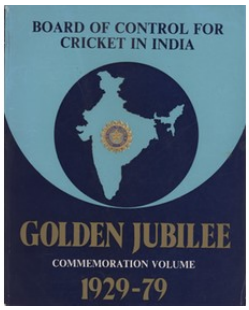

All programmes are better quality with most in fine condition. Some of the early ones have team changes or scores recorded neatly inside and a couple have had their rusty staples removed and replaced very carefuly with thread. The top corner of the back cover of 1948 programme is missing and there is small area of ink writing on that same back cover. Overall, a very nice set of programmes.
